

please do not get rid of do-not-call, my time is precious the interruptions are not only annoying, but also extremely rude. If solicitors are allowed to call it leaves alot of people open to scams. It is hard to tell a solicitor from a litget company that you do buisness with.